HUNZIKER HAD A CLOSE CALL Stray Bullet Passed Above His Head While He Was Asleep.

SHELBY M. CULLOM FORMALLY RE-ELECTED

LEGISLATURE BUSY AT WORK.

Several Members Determined to Make a Fight for a Two-Cent Per Mile Railroad Rate-Bills Introduced.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.-Shelby M. Cullom was re-elected to-day for the fourth consecutive term to the United States Senate. The vote in the House stood 79 for Shelby M. Cullom to 67 for Samuel Alschuler. In the Senate, Mr. Cullom got 31 and Mr. Alschuler 18. The absentees in the Senate were Bailey (Rep.) of Danville and McAdams (Dem.) of Quincy. In the House, Hughes of Dixon and Miller of Mc-Leansboro (Rep.) and Busse of Lawrence ville, Grigsby of Blandinsville, Shay of Chicago and Robinson of Parkville (Dems.) were not present.

To-morrow the result in each house will be announced in joint assembly at high noon and Senator Cullom declared elected. He will deliver a speech of about 6,000 words to the joint assembly, in which amnesty will be extended to the supporters of his rivals in the recent contest.

Nohe's Resolution.

Mr. Nohe introduced a resolution in the House asking for the appointment of a special committee to investigate recent wrecks on the Chicago and Alton Raliroad. Mr. Nohe asked unanimous consent to have the resolution made a special order for Tuesday of next week, immediately after the reading of the Journal. There was no objection, and the special order was recorded.

Two-Cent Railroad Rates.
While the Nohe resolution is almed directly at the Alton, there is a dogged determination on the part of many members to force a 2-cent-fare bill through. They point to the reports of the railroads, wherein it is shown that the average rate per mile for each passenger is a small fraction above 2 cents, and the members believe if all passes are abolished railroads will welcome a 2-cent rate. It is felt that a railroad. come a 2-cent rate. It is felt that a reduc-tion in passenger rates would force a com-plete abolition of political passes. Nominating Speeches.

The day was consumed in both branches by speeches nominating and seconding the candidates for United States Senator. Senacandidates for United States Senator. Senator Lawrence B. Stringer of Lincoln, in presenting Mr. Alschuler's name, made the best impression. It was a spiendid oration and magnificent tribute to Mr. Alschuler and the principles of Democracy. Senator Gardner's eulogy of Mr. Cullom also was a fine effort. Seconding speeches in the Senate were made by Templeton for Cullom and by Shumway for Alschuler.

In the House Mr. Trautman added to his already high reputation as an orator by his tribute to Senator Cullom, and Denis E.
Sullivan exceeded the expectations of his friends in presenting Mr. Alschuler.

Rankin of Warren, Beitier of Chicago and Bundy of Centralia seconded Cullom's nomination, and Browne of La Saile and Wilson of Woosung seconded that of Alschuler.

CALL FOR SPECIAL MEETING.

Quotes Jefferson Club Constitution Against Indorsing Candidates.

The call issued for the special meeting of the Jefferson Club by President Hawes on Monday was received by every member of the club yesterday. As has already been published R. H. Kern and seventeen other members addressed a petition to President Hawes last week requesting him to call the meeting, at the same time generally stating that the object was to have the club declare against the nomination of Rolla Wells for Mayor by the Democratic Convention whenever it snoud be held.

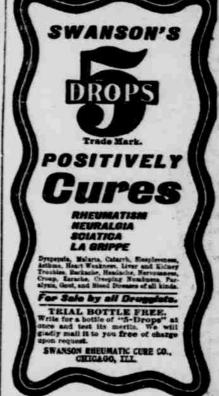

In the official call issued by President Hawes he takes advantage of the opportunity to acquaint every member with the constitutional limitations of the club so far as the question of the indorsement of candidates or applicants for appointive offices is concerned, and quetes the special articles of that instrument in which the inhibition is to be found.

For the information of all President is concerned, and quetes the special articles of that instrument in which the inhibition is to be found.

For the information of all President Hawes quotes in his call article 9, section 1, which is as follows:

"Indorsement of Candidates—This association shail not, as an association, formally indorse or oppose any candidate for office before nomination or appointment"; and article 9, section 2, reads: "This association shall formally support all regularity nominated candidates and all regularity adopted piatforms of the Democratic party." After these articles and sections, continuing, President Hawes says: "From a reading of the above quoted sections you will see that it is the clearly declared policy and law of our association that no candidate shall be indorsed or opposed for elective or appointive office prior to the action of a regular Democratic convention governing such questions. From a personal knowledge of the workings of our association in "is eight years' history. I have never known of its attempting any action prior to a convention, either opposing or advocating the claims of any man. All of the active members of the club know that to bring before our organization, by subterfuge or otherwise, a discussion of the merits or demerits of any candidate now before the people is against our time-honored policy and cannot but investing the claims of the club know that to bring before our organization, and I cannot but indulge the hope that our organization, which has been built up after years of labor, expenditure of large sums of money, brain power and energy, shall not have its usefulness impaired or its power diminished at this time because certain gentlemen may not agree with the views of certain other gentlemen regarding the propriety of supporting as individuals the claims of different aspirants for office."

economically as possible. I think Mr.
Thompson and myself, with the assistance
of a stenographer, will be able to get along all right, and therefore I shall not retain any more of the old deputles."

Speaking of his appointment and the policy he would pursue, the new Commissioner said: "Governor Dockery told me he wanted me to come to St. Louis and take charge of the office temporarily. He gave me no instructions as to any policy or particular line of duty to be followed. I expect to run the office within the law.
That's all any man can do. Wherever the law is violated I shall not hesitate to act,
but in its enforcement I shall pursue a decent, prudent course, weighing well all facts when complaint is made and satisfying myself that the law has been violated.
This done I shall proceed to exercise with firmness such remedies as the law provides."

MENTIONED FOR POLICE BOARD.

Breckinridge Jones Says He Could Not Accept-T. R. Ballard Surprised.

Accept—T. R. Bailard Surprised.

A report was published in St. Louis yesterday to the effect that Governor Dockery seriously contemplates the appointment of Breckinridge Jones, Given Campbell and T. R. Bailard as Police Commissioners for St. Louis. All three of these gentlemen were asked what they knew about the rumor. Mr. Jones said:

"The idea is ridiculous and I do not think that the Governor has thought of me in connection with the office. I am not a candidate and could not accept if I were appointed. My business engagements absolutely preclude the thought of such a thing, and if I were appointed I would be compelled to deciline."

T. R. Bailard said: "I had not before heard my name mentioned in connection with the police commissionership, and I am inclined now to think that the only foundation for the rumor is imagination. Whether I would accept, if the office was tendered to me, would depend largely upon who my associates were to be."

Judge Campbell declined to make a statement.

Twenty-First Ward Democrats. The Twenty-first Ward Democratic Club will meet at Grand avenue and North Mar-ket street this evening. Business of im-portance will come before the meeting.

Springfield Evening News, and William Beymer, a young man about town, caused considerable excitement in the business district at 120 o'clock this afternoon. Beymer assaulted the editor and when the latter appeared to be getting the better of the struggle, his assailant seized his left ear
with the teeth, inflicting a painful wound.
Less than six months ago Beymer eloped with Bessie Hitt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hitt, wealthy residents of Jacksonville, Ill. Last Sunday the girl left her husband and returned to her home. In

The formality incident to the installation of the new Commissioner was so simple that had a stranger chanced to enter the office at the time he would not have realized that anything unusual was going on. Mr. Selbert simply went to the office, recalled that anything unusual was going on the office, and everything possible was done by them to fully acquaint the new incumbent with the detail of the work of the office.
